Can't Eat

You certainly don't want to eat if you are not hungry. But you must eat, and you must digest your food, too. If not, you will become weak, pale, thin, tired, good appetite, good digestion, — these are essential.

Mr. Robert Venns, of Lancaster, Tasmania, sends us his photograph and says: "I suffered greatly from loss of appetite, indigestion, pains in the stomach, weakness, and nervousness. Several doctors tried in vain to give me relief. A friend then induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for it had done him much good. The first bottle worked wonders for me. Soon my appetite came back, my indigestion was cured, and I was strong and hearty."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.

Keep your bowels in good condition by using Ayer's Pills. They cure constipation, coated tongue, biliousness, sick headache.

THE SONOMA AT "FRISCO"

HEAD SEA AND STRONG WINDS DELAY HER PASSAGE FROM HERE—HER RECORD CARGO.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—A head sea and strong winds caused a delay in the arrival of the Oceanic liner Sonoma from Sydney yesterday, the run from Honolulu occupying 5 days and 15 hours. Although expected early in the day, as usual, the steamer did not reach port until after 4 o'clock, and the time intervening before the departure of the afternoon overland train upon which the English mails were scheduled to depart, was so brief that special permission was given by Quarantine Official Cumming for the Spreckels tugboat Relief to meet the Sonoma in quarantine grounds and take off the through mail, amounting to 257 bags, which was then hurried to Oakland in time to catch the 6 o'clock train. A total of 428 bags of mail was brought by the liner, and she reached her slip at Pacific street wharf at 6 o'clock.

A record cargo was brought by the Sonoma, the freight amounting to 1340 tons, or more than has ever been brought through from the Antipodes by any of the three big steamers of the Spreckels line. The number of passengers was also unusually large, and the statement was made by some of them that the trip had been remarkably enjoyable, entertainments and concerts being of frequent occurrence. The whole number of over 200 passengers signed a testimonial to Captain Herriman, expressing appreciation of his interest in their welfare and entertainment, and expressing the same sentiments toward Purser G. A. Hodson, Chief Steward Hackett, Chief Officer Coughan and Chief Engineer Archie Little.

The outward trip of the Sonoma from this port broke the record for actual steaming time to Sydney, the distance being covered in 19 days, 6 hours and 20 minutes. On the return trip a big gale followed the steamer between Sydney and Auckland, but except for this and the head winds and sets after leaving Honolulu the weather was fine. No sickness or accidents marred the voyage.

The large cargo of the Sonoma contained 754 pieces of timber, 292 ingots of tin, 10 cages and boxes of birds and animals, 39 bundles of skins, from Sydney; 2498 bales flax, 15 casks of pelts and 416 ingots of zinc, from Auckland; 4 packages of coin from Pago-Pago, and 5642 bags of sugar, 46 bags of coffee, 852 bunches of bananas and 34 boxes of coin from Honolulu.

PRINCESS SUES KING.

Associated Press, Morning Service. BRUSSELS, May 13.—The Countess de Lonyaya has sued her father, King Leopold, for three million dollars, her share in her mother's estate.

The scandal arising from the revival of the old family quarrel between King Leopold of Belgium and his daughter the Countess de Lonyaya, formerly Crown Princess Stephanie, widow of Arch Duke Rudolph of Austria, and now wife of Count de Lonyaya, will have to be aired in the courts through the bringing of this suit. When King Leopold's wife died at Spa, Belgium, the Countess hurried to her mother's bier, but King Leopold ordered her to leave the country.

Crown Princess Stephanie married de Lonyaya three years ago. The Countess was a diplomat of high standing but King Leopold bitterly opposed the marriage. The Austrian Emperor favored the match and the two aged monarchs have since had epistolary quarrels concerning it. Franz Josef sheltered Stephanie and may possibly be abetting her present suit. It has been known for some time that the Countess was financially embarrassed. As a widow the former Crown Princess enjoyed an income of $125,000 and had a free residence in the Austrian palace, but on her marriage to the Count this income was reduced four-fifths and she was no longer furnished with free lodgings, splendid carriages, and servants. Her husband could not furnish her with all these things as he has been badly handled by his creditors ever since their marriage. The Countess is now said to be deeply in debt to certain royal Austrians who have loaned her money.

Queen Marie Henrietta of Belgium died last September after a most unhappy life. She died of a broken heart King Leopold has an unsavory reputation as a monarch. He is rich beyond the dreams of avarice, having made his millions by developing the Congo Free State, and some say in robbing the natives of life and property. He is said to be possessed of fifteen millions. King Leopold locked his daughter Louise in a mad house to prevent her from inheriting the wealth of his sister Carlotta, once Empress of Mexico, who has been slowly dying for years. He intends to get that great fortune, and from the suit filed above it seems that he also wishes to have the large estate left by his wife, the late queen.

E. D. Tenney for the legislative committee made an oral report in which he said that there were several matters in connection with the appropriations which the committee was watching. He felt it was pretty certain that the appropriation for the extension of the wharves and the improvement of the harbor, in which the Chamber of Commerce was particularly interested would be made.

A letter was read from T. Clive Davies, chairman of the Executive committee of the Shippers' wharf committee, enclosing $1500 as a part of the 10 cents a ton tax on imports, to be used by the Chamber of Commerce "for the benefit of the community."

A resolution offered by James G. Spencer was adopted directing the treasurer to turn over to the Tourist Committee this and all other money received by the Chamber from the same source. A number of letters were read, among them one from the Providence R. L. High School asking for exhibits of island products for the school museum, which was referred to the Tourist committee.

The Chamber of Commerce of Brisbane, Queensland asked for an exchange of official and other publications. It was referred to the Secretary of the Territory.

Secretary James G. Spencer stated that he had been informed this morning that the item of $20,000 for advertising the territory which was defeated yesterday in the House was not altogether dead. A resolution urging the passage of the item was presented, and adopted.

Commissioner of Immigration F. P. Sargent was present by invitation. President Cooke introduced him to the Chamber in a pleasant little speech. Mr. Sargent made a short address and was heartily applauded. At the close of the meeting the members of the Chamber were introduced to him personally by President Cooke.

Dr. Atchery of South Kohala repeated his request for an increase on salary to $100 per month. He asked also that the board allow him back salary at that rate from February, which could not be done for want of an appropriation.
